

PUBLIC ADVISORY

WARNING OF FRAUDULENT ONLINE SCHEME USING AI-GENERATED IMPERSONATIONS: STABLE ROWDEX / STABLE CAPITAL / FUTURIX CAPITAL

The Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission ("TTSEC") is once again alerting the public to a fraudulent online investment scheme operating under the names Stable Rowdex, Stable Capital and Futurix Capital which is promoting an AI-related investment opportunity.

The TTSEC has confirmed that the Scheme is distributing AI-generated videos, fabricated newspaper articles, altered images and other falsified promotional content purporting to show endorsements from the Honourable Prime Minister of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago and other prominent individuals including, Dr. Ronald Ramkissoon and Mr. Wendell Mottley, ORTT.

The TTSEC wishes to emphasize that this Scheme is continuously evolving. Its name, branding, and the individuals being impersonated are frequently changing to avoid detection.

The TTSEC wishes to make it unequivocally clear that:

- These endorsements are entirely false;
- No such investment product or the Scheme have been endorsed by the Prime Minister or any other named public official or individual referenced in the promotional materials; and
- The materials being circulated are fraudulent and intended to deceive the public.

Entity Not Registered

The TTSEC further advises that Stable Rowdex, Stable Capital or Futurix Capital are not registered with the TTSEC to offer securities or investment-related products to the public of Trinidad and Tobago.

Public Warning

Members of the public are advised to exercise extreme caution when encountering any solicitation, advertisement or online communication related to the named Scheme or any investment opportunity that:

- Promises unusually high returns or guaranteed returns;
- Uses AI-generated videos or images impersonating public officials;
- References endorsements by the Prime Minister or other prominent individuals; or
- Originates from obscure, anonymous or unverified digital sources.

Have Information?

Persons who may have been contacted by the promoters of this scheme or who possess information that may assist in identifying individuals involved in its creation or distribution, are encouraged to contact the TTSEC using any of the following options:
