

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

NOTICE

The Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission (“TTSEC”) expresses gratitude to all our stakeholders for their contributions during the first round of public consultation on the Draft Risk Based Capital Adequacy and Liquidity (“RBCAL”) Bye-Laws.

Based on the feedback, the TTSEC compiled responses to the comments and queries, as well as revised the Draft RBCAL Bye-Laws to incorporate some of the amendments proposed by stakeholders.

At this stage in the process, stakeholders are invited to peruse the following package of documents accessible on the TTSEC’s website via the following link: <https://www.ttsec.org.tt/draft-risk-based-capital-and-liquidity-requirements-by-laws-2023-second-round/>

1. Draft RBCAL Bye-Laws 2023- August 2023
2. Draft RBCAL Bye-Laws 2023- May 2024
3. Table- TTSEC responses and significant changes
4. Feedback Template
5. RBCAL Forms Workbook- May 2024
6. RBCAL Consolidated Instructions for Form

The TTSEC hereby provides notice that the amended Draft RBCAL Bye-Laws is available for a second round of consultation. All comments can be forwarded to rbc@ttsec.org.tt using the Feedback Template which is included on the TTSEC’s website.

If further information is required, please contact Mr. Sugrim Mungal sugrimm@ttsec.org.tt

The Consultation period ends Tuesday 11th June 2024.

Dated May 7th, 2024.