FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 10th, 2010

TTSEC co-hosts Capital Market Development Workshop

The Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) along with the Caribbean Regional Technical Assistance Centre (CARTAC) and the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (USSEC) will be hosting a regional workshop titled "Market oversight in the Caribbean" at the Hyatt Regency Trinidad from March 10th- 12th 2010.

The Conference is designed to be a forum for the exchange of best practices in the development and regulation of capital markets presented through a series of lectures, roundtables and case studies. Senior experts from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission will share their insights on capital market development, enforcement, and examination of market participants.

The program will also explore responses to crisis and market abuses, provide observations comparing and contrasting approaches by regulatory systems around the world, and highlight international best practices. The presenters will use real-world examples of market abuse and inefficiencies to explore the regulatory, statutory, and other tools capital market regulators need to address these challenges.
