

Investor Education A key factor in Capital Market development

COSRA 2012 Meeting

Patrick Watson Chairman, Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission

Outline

- Impact of the Global Financial crisis
- Implications for Regional Investors
- Regional experience
- Role of Investor Education (IE)
- TTSEC experience
- Considerations for the region
- Expected outcomes

Impact of the Global Financial crisis

- Growth rates slowed for many countries
- Foreign direct investment reduced
- Reduced domestic appetite for investment in national economies
- Increased complexity of product offerings
- Increased instances of market manipulation

Implications for investors

- Consumers of financial services:
 - Have less disposable income
 - Are more susceptible to risk
 - Must be more prudent in their financial decision making
 - Need to have confidence in the regulation of the market and its players
 - Must become financially literate in order to participate meaningfully in the capital market

Regional Experience- Survey

- A survey of securities regulators in Jamaica, Barbados Eastern Caribbean States and Trinidad & Tobago focused on:
 - Product offerings
 - Investor preferences
 - Investor education strategies

Regional Product offerings

- There is a very limited product offering compared to more developed markets.
- Regionally, investment products available to investors include:
 - Collective investment schemes
 - Repurchase agreements
 - Treasury Bills and Government Bonds (primary and secondary market)
 - Equity (secondary market)

Investor preferences

- Investors generally appear to be 'risk averse';
- Strong preference for commercial bank deposits; and
- Low retail investor participation in the stock market across all jurisdictions

Investor Preferences by Jurisdiction

Territory	Preferred investments
Jamaica	Repurchase agreements
Trinidad & Tobago	Collective Investment Schemes
Eastern Caribbean States	Commercial banking relationships maintained
Barbados	Government securities, mutual funds

Role of Investor Education (IE)

IE provides:

- Information to current and future investors to help them to make informed financial decisions
- Advice which is unbiased, objective and does not suggest to stakeholders where or when to invest

IE focuses on:

- Issues related to the importance of saving and investing
- Helping to build Investor Confidence in the capital market and its regulation

Investor Education – Focal Areas

- Role and function of the regulator
- Rights and responsibilities of investors
- Avoiding Scams
- How to Complain

IE Strategies 2013 and Beyond

- Greater use of digital media to inform and empower investors and potential investors (Webinars)
- Development of TV messages on Scams
- Investor Education Competition (Tertiary Level)
- Educational Investing Game (Stock Market)
- Continuation of outreach sessions, print, electronic and digital media campaign

Policy considerations for TTSEC 2013 and Beyond

- A national policy on Financial Education
- More proactive research initiatives
- Greater collaboration amongst stakeholder partners including the Ministry of Education

Regional Considerations

- A coordinated strategy for Investor Education
- A regional COSRA sub-committee on Investor Education to conduct research
- Sharing of successful regional Investor education initiatives.
- Coordination of joint regional investor education initiatives and training sessions for facilitators
- Governmental support through Central Banks and Securities Regulators

Expected Outcomes

- As we enhance our investor education initiatives, we expect to see:
 - More participation in the capital market
 - More knowledgeable investors
 - Increased levels of investment
 - Fewer persons falling victim to scams
 - Wealth creation for our people
